

Curriculum Vitae: Dr Camille Allard

Research Fellow

Email: camille.allard@unimi.it

Research interests: Sociology of Work and Organisations; Industrial relations; Sociology of Care; Health and Wellbeing

Short Bio

Camille Allard is a Research Fellow at the Università degli Studi di Milano, Italy. She is a sociologist researching different aspects of caring and the care economy from a feminist perspective. Her research has focused on care and wellbeing support and practices within organisations for individuals with care responsibilities, or those experiencing life events such as grief and loss, and the roles of knowledge/evidence use, social imaginaries, and epistemologies.

She has extensive experience leading qualitative research in international contexts, having explored a variety of topics, including individual experiences of work and care among ageing workers and British working carers, and wellbeing perspectives in schools and workplaces in the UK.

Education

2018-2022

PhD in Sociology | University of Sheffield, UK

Thesis title: Taking the time to care? A study of employer-provided paid carer's leave in three organisations in the UK
(Awarded with no corrections)

Supervisors: Prof. Sue Yeandle and Prof. Jason Heyes

Examiners: Prof. Fiona Carmichael and Prof. Liam Foster.

2015-2017

MA Moral and Political Philosophy | Sorbonne University (Paris IV), France, (Hons)

Exchange period with University of Copenhagen, Denmark

2012-2015

BA Philosophy | University of Rennes 1, France (Hons)

Exchange period with University of Sherbrooke, Canada

Academic experience

2024-present

Research Fellow and Adjunct Professor, Department of Social and Political Sciences | Università Degli Studi di Milano, Italy

YECEI project 'Young Entrepreneurs of Creative Environmental Imagery'

- Conducting interviews with leaders and volunteers of youth-led social and climate movement organisations.
- Organising a workshop presentation with climate and social organisations (Ultima Generazione, Extinction Rebellion and Friday for Future).
- Designing and delivering lectures on the politics of care, gender and work, and globalisation, social justice and human rights.

2021- 2024

Research Fellow and Associate Lecturer, Applied Health Research Institute | University of Birmingham, UK

WISE project 'Wellbeing Investments in Schools and Employers'

- Analysing schools and workplaces' decision-making approaches regarding mental health and wellbeing initiatives in the aftermath of Covid-19.
- Leading semi-structured interviews with schools and workplace leaders and analysing policy documents regarding wellbeing initiatives.
- Designing and delivering lectures on health policy implementation, sociology of health, qualitative research methods; designing, marking assessments and supervising students' dissertations.

2020-2021

Research Assistant, Centre for International Research on Care, Labour, and Equalities | University of Sheffield, UK

- Policy documents analysis on the recognition of the role of 'family carer' in different countries' contexts.

Curriculum Vitae: Dr Camille Allard

Research Fellow

Email: camille.allard@unimi.it

2019-2021

Teaching Associate, Management School and Department of Sociological Studies | University of Sheffield, UK

- Leading and delivering seminars on a variety of topics, including Sociology of Work, Work and Employment in the 21st century, Organisational Behaviour, Classical Sociological Thoughts, Social Sciences Research methods, and Psycho-social determinants of health.

Publications

- Allard, C., Byford, S., Johnson, R., Ganguli, P., and Al-Janabi, H. (Accepted) Beyond Good Intentions: How Schools and Workplaces Use Evidence to Navigate Health and Wellbeing Investment Decisions—A Scoping Review", the International Journal of Organization Theory & Behavior.
- Allard, C., and Al-Janabi, H. (2026) Whose idea? Using (or not) evidence in workplaces to invest in mental health and wellbeing initiatives, in Organization Studies and Medical Humanities. New lens for organising, managing and understanding health and healthcare, Eds by Bernardi, A., Quacquarelli, B., Lusardi, B., and Angeli, F. Routledge/Taylor & Francis book, ISBN 9781032946696.
- Allard, C. (2025). How Care Inequalities are Reproduced in 'Carer-Friendly' Jobs: The Case of Employer-Led Carer's Leave. Work, Employment and Society, 39(4), pp. 814-835.
<https://doi.org/10.1177/09500170251337682>
- Allard, C., Johnson, R., O'Loughlin, S., Al-Janabi, H. (2025) Mental health and wellbeing priority setting: a study of evidence use in schools in England, Social Science & Medicine, 380(118214), pp. 1-9 <https://doi.org/10.1016/j.socscimed.2025.118214>.
- Johnson, R., Allard, C., Soan, C., Beach, D., Al-Janabi, H. (2025) 'Care as Capital': Developing theory about school investment in mental health and wellbeing, Social Science & Medicine, 380(118214), pp. 1-9
- Hamblin, K., Heyes, J., and Allard, C. (2024): 'United Kingdom', in Combining work and care: care leave and related employment policies in international context, Eds by Hamblin, K., Heyes, J., and Fast, J. Policy Press Book <https://doi.org/10.51952/9781447365723.ch005>
- Allard, C., and Whitfield, Grace J. (2023) Guilt, Care, and the Ideal Worker: Comparing Guilt Among Working Carers and Care Workers. Gender, Work & Organization, 31(2), pp. 666-682 <https://doi.org/10.1111/gwao.12956>.
- Allard, C. (2023). Speaking up as a working carer: working carers' use of voice and struggles for representation in the workplace. International Journal of Care and Caring, 8(3), pp. 418-436
<https://doi.org/10.1332/23978821Y2023D000000007>
- Allard, C. (2022). Taking the time to care? A study of employer-provided paid carer's leave in three organisations in the UK. PhD Thesis. University of Sheffield. OAI ID: etheses.whiterose.ac.uk:30589
- Spann, A., Allard, C., Harvey, A., Zwerger, K., Spreeuwenberg, M., Hawley, M., & De Witte, L. (2022) The impact of autonomy at work on dementia family carers' ability to manage care-related emergencies, and use technology to that end: semi-structured interviews in Scotland, Community, Work & Family, 27(3), pp. 351-373, 10.1080/13668803.2022.2117589
- Spann, A., Vicente, J., Allard, C., Hawley, M., Spreeuwenberg, M., and Witte, L. (2020). Challenges of combining work and unpaid care, and solutions: A scoping review. Health & Social Care in the Community, 28(3), 699-715. <https://doi.org/10.1111/hsc.12912>
- Allard, C. (2021). Labours of Love: The Crisis of Care by Madeleine Bunting (2020). International Journal of Care and Caring 5(2), 381-382. <https://doi.org/10.1332/239788221X16112600856886>
- Allard, C. (2021) 'Birth and death: experience, ethics, politics: by Kath Woodward and Sophie Woodward, London and New York, Routledge, 2020, Mortality, 26(2), pp. 222-223, <https://doi.org/10.1080/13576275.2020.1801619>.

Curriculum Vitae: Dr Camille Allard

Research Fellow

Email: camille.allard@unimi.it

Under review

Book contract with Bristol University Press. Manuscript to be published in 2026.

Allard, C., and Johnson, R. 'Playing the Investigators together and researching schools' wellbeing investment with care: A process tracing and cognitive interview approach', in Doing Research Methods Differently, edited by Alexandra Bristow and Marco Distinto, and published by Routledge.

Research and policy contributions and outputs

2025: PI for a research proposal submitted to the 'Inequalities Research' grant from the Cariplo Foundation, in team with professors and researchers at the University of Milan, the Polytechnic of Milan, and AUSER Lombardia.

Title: Envisioning Better Workplace Support for Young Adult Caregivers in Lombardy: YOU CARE

The proposal aims to investigate the inequality factors affecting young adult caregivers caring for a dependent relative, who is ageing, disabled or long-term ill with physical and/or mental health issues. This can include family relatives, but also friends and/or neighbours. The phenomenon is growing in Italy and receiving increasing legislative and political attention. The project aims to map out the dimensions of inequality faced by young adult caregivers in the Lombardy region, particularly regarding work and gender, and to better understand potential existing mechanisms of support, such as workplace and community support systems.

2025: Project Advisor for a grant application submitted to the Nuffield Foundation (UK) Led by Dr Louise Lawson, University of Glasgow (UK)

Title: Balancing Unpaid Care and Paid Work: Women's Employment Trajectories

Adopting a life course perspective, this project sets out to uniquely explore through a mixed methods approach the long-term and cumulative effects of caregiving for women and the diverse implications for unpaid carers as a heterogeneous group.

2022: Work Inclusivity Research Centre, Birmingham Business School | University of Birmingham (UK): Contribution to National Policy Forum Consultation 2022-Better Jobs and Better Work – with Dr Scott Taylor, Holly Birkett, Professor Tony Dobbins, Dr Benjamin Hopkins, Dr Daniel Wintersberger, and Dr Dan Wheatley.

2020: Sustainable Care programme | University of Sheffield (UK): Contribution and submission of written evidence to Consultation on Carer's leave, led by the Department for Business, Energy and Industrial Strategy, UK government.

Professional achievements, awards and fundings

Professional achievements

- Monograph under contract with Bristol University Press. Title 'The myth of the benevolent employer: for a feminist critique of the wellbeing agenda at work.'
- Associate Fellow of the Higher Education Academy, 2021.
 - Associate fellowship is the category of fellowship to professionally recognise individuals involved in Higher Education teaching in the UK. I obtained the fellowship to recognise my involvement in leading and delivering seminars on a variety of topics, including Sociology of Work, Organizational Behaviour, Employment in the 21st century, Classical Sociological Thoughts, Social Sciences Research methods, and Sociology of professions.
- My PhD work has been featured:
 - in Emily Kenway's memoir 'Who Cares? the hiding crisis of caregiving, and how we solve it' (Headline Publishing Group, 2023)
 - in the Care Matters podcasts.
- My PhD work has also served to inform a governmental consultation for legislating on Statutory Carer's Leave, launched by the Department for Business, Energy and Industrial Strategy in 2020 (UK).

Curriculum Vitae: Dr Camille Allard

Research Fellow

Email: camille.allard@unimi.it

Academic conferences and seminars on invitation

(2026 - Scheduled)

Società Italiana di Sociologia Economica, Università di Firenze. Panel Dis)ordini di vario genere e approcci femministi nei contesti organizzativi: pratiche di complicità, conflittualità, e solidarietà. Title of the presentation: 'A feminist critique of the benevolent employer: looking at care and wellbeing policies in the workplace.'

(2025)

8th International encounters, Marx Horkheimer schools, University of Lausanne. Title of the presentation: 'Rethinking young climate activists' visions of the future through Erich Fromm's concept of Biophilia.'

Società Scientifica Italiana di Sociologia, Cultura, Comunicazione, Università di Cagliari 'Cronotopie del cambiamento climatico: narrazioni temporali, utopie, distopie e l'immaginario sociale del futuro.'

Carers and Parents Network, University of London, 'The work-life agenda and the forgotten voice of carers in the workplace.'

[2024]

European Group for Organizational Studies, 'sub-theme: Medical Humanities and the Social Construction of Health and Well-Being', University of Milano- Bicocca, 'Whose idea? Using (or not) evidence in workplaces to invest in mental health and wellbeing initiatives.'

[2023]

Conference on Diversity and Inclusion: Amplifying Under-Represented Voices, Birmingham Business School, University of Birmingham. 'Speaking up as a working carer: An examination of working carers' use of voice and representation in three workplaces in the UK.'

National Centre for Research Methods- Research Methods e-Festival, online. 'Gaining access: methodological and ethical challenges of researching workplaces.'

Health Economists' Study Group, University of Oxford. 'Allocating resources to mental health and wellbeing: how do schools and workplaces use evidence to inform their decisions?'

Transforming Care Conference, University of Sheffield. 'Guilt and care inequalities: navigating unmet needs when combining care and work.'

West Midland Combined Authorities and the Centre for Urban Wellbeing, Birmingham. A policy masterclass on investing in wellbeing and mental health- a presentation of the WISE (Wellbeing Investments in Schools and Employers) project.

International Labour Process Theory Conference, University of Glasgow. 'Guilt, Care, and the Ideal Worker: Comparing Guilt Among Working Carers and Care Workers.'

[2022]

Sheffield Sociological Studies Department, University of Sheffield-Research consortium. 'No return to normality and experiences of doing research during Covid-19'

[2021]

European Sociological Association's Research Network on Ageing in Europe- Midterm conference (2021-online). 'Ageing as a working carer: experiences, ethical dilemmas and access to resources.'

[2019]

Curriculum Vitae: Dr Camille Allard

Research Fellow

Email: camille.allard@unimi.it

Social Policy Annual Conference, Durham University. "Carer's Leave'- do we have time to care? Implications and challenges for implementing statutory right to care leave in an ageing British society.'

European Sociological Association, University of Manchester. 'Defining working carers' experience as one of precariousness in the UK.'

Workshop on 'Women and employment-perspectives, images, perception', Université de Nantes. " Je suis aidant (e) et je travaille aussi ! " – Reconnaître la spécificité 'd'être aidant(e)' en Grande-Bretagne, une contribution à l'égalité des genres ?

Eurocarers Organisations Annual Meeting, Copenhagen- Presentation of the research work from the Sustainable Care programme led by the University of Sheffield.

[2018]

Post-graduate conference, Department of Sociological Studies, University of Sheffield (Co-organiser). 'Recognizing and supporting working carers in the workplace- presentation of my research proposal'

[2017]

*Conference for Women in Philosophy, Amsterdam University.
'Volunteer work, the other 'shadow work' and its controversial values.'*

Teaching Experience

Università Degli Studi di Milano (Italy), Department of Social and Political Sciences (2025-2026)

- Associate Lecturer for Globalization, Social Justice and Human Rights course (Postgraduates) [20 hours]
- Laboratory The Politics of Care (Undergraduates and Postgraduates) [20 hours]

Università Degli Studi di Milano (Italy), Department of Social and Political Sciences (2025-2026)

- Laboratory The Politics of Care (Undergraduates and Postgraduates) [20 hours]

University of Birmingham (UK), Applied Health Research Institute (2023-2024)

- Associate lecturer and Module Convenor for the Health policy module (MSc postgraduates) [20 hours, including dissertation supervision]
- Teaching Assistant, Introduction to research (Undergraduates) [4 hours]
- 2023: Teaching Assistant, Sociology of Health and Sociology of Professions (Medical undergraduates) [2 hours]

University of Sheffield (UK), Sociological Studies Department and Management School (2020-2021)

- Teaching Associate, responsible for conducting the seminar series for the module "The Sociology of Everyday Life" (Undergraduates) [20 hours]
- Teaching Associate, responsible for conducting the seminar series for the module "Introduction to the Psycho-social determinants of health" (Medical Undergraduates) [6 hours]
- Teaching Associate, responsible for conducting the seminar series for the module "Introduction to Classical Sociological Thought" (Undergraduates) [20 hours]
- Teaching Associate, responsible for conducting the seminar series for the module "Doing Social Research" (Undergraduates) [10 hours]
- Teaching Associate, responsible for conducting the seminar series for the module "Work and Employment in the 21st Century" (Undergraduates and postgraduates) [20 hours]
- Teaching Associate, responsible for conducting the seminar series for the module "Organizational Behaviour" (Undergraduates) [20 hours]

University of Sheffield (UK), Sociological Studies Department and Management School (2019-2020)

- Teaching Associate, responsible for conducting the seminar series for the module "Introduction to Classical Sociological Thought" (Undergraduates) [20 hours]

Curriculum Vitae: Dr Camille Allard

Research Fellow

Email: camille.allard@unimi.it

- Teaching Associate, responsible for conducting the seminar series for the module “Organizational Behaviour” (Undergraduates) [20 hours]
- Teaching Associate, responsible for conducting the seminar series for the module “The Sociology of Everyday Life” (Undergraduates) [20 hours]

Languages

- French: Native;
 - English: Fluent;
 - Italian: B1 level.
-